FORE WORD

As we reflect on the past few months, we are proud of a time filled with energy, learning, and teamwork. From May to August, the Eco Scope Foundation has remained committed to our mission of finding sustainable ways to fight poverty in our communities..

We ended the second quarter by commemorating the International Day Against Human Trafficking, an event that highlighted our KESHO SALAMA project. This initiative focuses on supporting victims and survivors of human trafficking, especially women and youth, through financial inclusion. This celebration capped off months of strong partnerships, innovative ideas, and meaningful growth. Our team showed their deep commitment to tackling these critical issues, and their efforts continue to be bright spots in our shared mission.

FOREWORD

We are extremely grateful to all our partners who have stood with us and offered their support throughout this second quarter, including DMI Spring of Hope, Champions Chanzige Organization, the National Secretariat of Human Trafficking in Tanzania, and the Government. Your support and dedication are testaments to the strength of our movement and the collaborative environment we are building together.

Looking back on this quarter, it's clear that our work was more than just carrying out activities; it was about empowering, uniting, and growing as an organization. Each achievement, no matter the size, reflects the core values that drive us.

We deeply appreciate your continued support of our mission. This newsletter celebrates the incredible progress we've achieved together in this second quarter. As we move forward, let's continue to light the way toward a more sustainable and just future for all.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In this edition of our newsletter, we reflect on the remarkable achievements and impact we've made together in the communities we serve. As we complete the second quarter, let's carry forward the spirit of partnership, resilience, and empowerment that defines the Eco Scope Foundation.

I extend my deepest gratitude to everyone for your unwavering dedication and passion, which have made the second quarter of 2024 a success. Your contributions have been crucial in our efforts to alleviate poverty and promote economic empowerment in Tanzania.

A special thanks to our staff, whose enthusiasm and determination are the heart of our organization. Your active participation and eagerness to grow inspire us all.

This quarter has been filled with inspiring activities, from leadership camps to community service projects, all made possible by your tireless efforts. Our heartfelt appreciation goes to the leaders, volunteers, and members who have generously invested their time and resources, creating a thriving environment for our work.

Mr. Damian Edward

OUR PROJECTS

Training ADEM Students on Human Trafficking

On June 1, 2024, we had the privilege of conducting a training session for ADEM students during their Family Day event. This training aimed to raise awareness about human trafficking, covering its definition, indicators, and impact both locally and globally. With over 400 participants in attendance, the session underscored the importance of education in combating this crime. We extend our gratitude to Champion Chanzige organization and all participants for their active engagement and commitment to this critical issue.

Strengthening Efforts Against Trafficking in Persons

This quarter, the Eco Scope Foundation (ESF) was honored with a certificate of recognition from DMI for our role as key stakeholders in the anti-trafficking network. This recognition was presented in Dar es Salaam on July 26th, 2024, just a week before the commemoration of the International Day Against Human Trafficking, marking a significant milestone in our ongoing efforts to combat human trafficking.

Approaching the World Day Against Trafficking in Persons

This year, on July 26th, we joined other stakeholders in advocating for the “World Day Against Trafficking in Persons 2024”, under the theme “Leave No Child Behind in the Fight Against Human Trafficking,” in Kibamba, Dar es Salaam. As part of our “KESHO NJEMA” project, implemented by the Eco Scope Foundation, we are committed to combating the trafficking of children, who are often exploited through forced labor, illegal adoption, and other forms of abuse. We firmly believe that addressing extreme poverty is key to reducing human trafficking and are dedicated to ensuring that no one is left behind.

Joining Forces at the International Day Against Human Trafficking

The Eco Scope Foundation had the privilege of joining anti-trafficking stakeholders, led by DMI, in Kibamba, Dar es Salaam. This gathering took place a week before the commemoration of the International Day Against Human Trafficking. The event served as a powerful call to action for all stakeholders to unite in condemning human trafficking and to create pathways to alleviate the extreme poverty that fuels this heinous crime.

Engaging in National Dialogue on Human Trafficking

We participated in the national dialogue on human trafficking held in Dodoma, where stakeholders from across Tanzania and beyond gathered to discuss and develop strategies against Trafficking in Persons (TIP). Invited by the Secretariat of Anti-Human Trafficking under the Ministry of Home Affairs, our Director, Mr. Damian Edward, represented the Eco Scope Foundation. During the dialogue, we contributed to advancing our "KESHO NJEMA" project, which is dedicated to rescuing, preventing, and providing opportunities for victims of human trafficking.

National Commemoration at Nyerere Square

Eco Scope Foundation proudly joined local civil society organizations, international partners, and the Tanzanian government in the national commemoration against TIP at Nyerere Square in Dodoma on 30th July. This event aimed to engage the public and raise awareness about human trafficking. Our collective voices and efforts reaffirm our unwavering commitment to ending human trafficking and supporting victims. We encourage everyone to learn, participate, and contribute to this cause.

Recognition as Key Stakeholder in Anti-Human Trafficking Efforts at U.S. Embassy in Tanzania

We were honored to be included among the stakeholders working against human trafficking at the U.S. Embassy in Tanzania. This platform allowed us to discuss challenges and propose recommendations on how various stakeholders can effectively address the ongoing issue of human trafficking.

Reviewing Nutrition Labeling and Consumer Protection Frameworks

Eco Scope Foundation participated in a strategic meeting organized by the Tanzania Women Lawyers Association (TAWLA) on the “Review of the Existing Legal and Policy Framework for Nutrition Labeling and Consumer Protection in Tanzania.” Held in Dar es Salaam, this initiative is critical for safeguarding consumer rights and ensuring transparency across the nation.

Regional Annual Forum on Strengthening the NGO Sector

At the Regional Annual Forum organized by the National Council of NGOs in Dar es Salaam, Eco Scope Foundation joined key stakeholders in discussions centered on strengthening good governance within the NGO sector. The forum, held at Karemjee Hall and honored by the Regional Commissioner Hon. Albert Chalamila, provided a valuable platform to address challenges and explore potential solutions for enhancing our collective impact.

Training on Post-Abortion Care in Tanzania

Eco Scope Foundation was represented by our Director of Programs at an intensive training session in Morogoro, organized by UMATI. The training focused on Post-Abortion Care (PAC) in Tanzania, equipping us with vital knowledge and skills for responsible reporting on safe abortion and related health services. This training is a valuable addition to our “Safe Reproductive Health Window” project, further reinforcing our commitment to raising public awareness and improving access to essential health services.

OUR PROJECTS

Supporting Education: Scholarships and Training for Children and Parents in Kawe District

As part of our "Mtoto ni Urithi" project, which supports education for underprivileged children and struggling parents, Eco Scope Foundation has been providing training to various parent groups in the Kawe district of Dar es Salaam. This initiative also includes awarding scholarships to children in difficult circumstances, particularly those living in market areas who lack the opportunity to attend school and face significant challenges in their intellectual development.

CULMINATION

“We want to thank all our partners for working with us, even though we’ve only been running for a short time. Our common goal of reducing poverty in our communities has been the motivation for our joint efforts.

We warmly invite sponsors, donors, and others who want to help improve society to join us. Together, we can make a real difference and create lasting change.”
